San Francisco March 9. 61.

My dear Clemon.

I have received your several favors to the 9th ultmo, and have delayed answering them, till I could visit Mr Hastings see Mr Alden. as yet we have not had an opportunity of seeing him - but I have no good news to give you.

You had better make up your mind to the loss, for whatever Mr C. may promise why upon it he can not comply - I have made another appointment with Judge Hastings to Wednesday to see him and will write you if we do so.

I should regret the cause of your coming this way, but would be most glad to see you - so far as a country & climate there is little to desire, - ^{a day} Our Mineral region would be interesting to you - Our money are perhaps no worse than other other portions of the States - They might be a great deal better -

As to our position as a Nation, I am heart sick, and I can not see how long of a very angry man, than for each State to go in on her own hook - out of chaos something might come.

The Democrats who have been the party of progress, and who have been sustaining the South for the past thirty years in the North, are now left in a very small minority to be crushed - The South in that respect have shown but little of that high tone of which they are so boastful of - and what they expect to do, I can not see - I never truly never was a Govt which so little interfered with the interior as large ment as our own, and full of practicability in many respects of the whole, I do not see how it can be reproduced - it is very easy to destroy.

where we are drifting East only know but I have lived so long in petty republics I fear their End. A military disposition must be the result sooner or later - war between families is the most bitter - The rule of Lincoln now is a new game, of the species we have reported are an index of the man - but it makes me heart sick to think of the present -

As a prudent man, I shall keep quiet & see the End of it - we are both too far advanced to hope much of mankind's improvement. - He only conceals better the depression within him - whether of God or the devil I do not know.

I find Sam something, but believe me

Yrs truly

A. M. M. M.
